

BINGEN AMEZAGA

Of Counsel at MGC, Bingen is admitted to the Paris, Madrid and Caracas Bars and has more than 17 years of experience in international arbitration.

Prior to assuming his position at MGC, Bingen headed the international arbitration practice of DS Avocats in Paris and before that he worked in the international arbitration practice of Dechert LLP and Castaldi Mourre & Partners.

Bingen assists his clients, private companies and public entities, in international arbitrations before major arbitral institutions involving various sectors and industries, in particular in the international trade, energy and construction sectors.

Bingen regularly acts as arbitrator, acting as presiding arbitrator, co-arbitrator, sole arbitrator and emergency arbitrator, in proceedings, subject to various procedural rules and national laws, in English, French, Portuguese and Spanish.

As counsel, arbitrator, or administrative secretary of renowned arbitrators, Bingen has had the opportunity to participate in more than 60 international arbitrations, commercial and investment, institutional and ad hoc, relating to various industries and dealing with many different legal issues.

Bingen is actively involved in associative and academic activities in the field of international arbitration. He was president of the French section of the Club Español del Arbitraje (CEA) and is a member of several associations and groups specialized in international arbitration, such as ICC Spain, ICC France, ICC Brazil, the Comité français de l'arbitrage (CFA), CEA, the Swiss Arbitration Association (ASA), the London Court of International Arbitration (LCIA), the ICC Latin American Group, the board of the LatAmArb youth group and the Comité Brasileiro de Arbitragem (CBAr).

He is the author of numerous publications on international arbitration, was editor of the publication Panorama Francés de Arbitraje in the Spain Arbitration Review for several years and is currently on the editorial board of Arbitraje, Revista de Arbitraje Comercial y de Inversión.

Bingen works in Spanish, English, French and Portuguese.